

From Inmate to Advocate:

A Journey of Transformation

By Edward A. Julian, Sr.

The Book Overview:

After serving 14 years in federal prison, Edward A. Julian Sr., offers an unfiltered, deeply moving look at incarceration and the complex hurdles of reentry. This updated edition is more than a memoir; it is a roadmap for systemic change.

What's Inside:

- 12 comprehensive chapters detailing the realities of the justice system.
- Original poetry following every chapter to provide emotional depth.
- Criminal justice facts grounded in lived experience and research.

Praise For The Book:

“As a judge with over three decades on the bench, I have witnessed countless individuals pass through the revolving door of our justice system. Yet EJ has reignited in me a renewed sense of purpose, reminding me that transformation is possible when truth, accountability, and opportunity intersect.”

— Judge James E. Green

About The Author:

Edward A. Julian Sr., is an author, poet, advocate, and youth mentor. Having spent 14 years in federal prison, followed by 14 years dedicated to reentry and community education, Edward provides a unique and necessary voice in the conversation on reform. He currently resides in Columbus, Ohio.

Book Specifications:

Feature	Details
Genre	Memoir, Social Justice, Criminal Justice
Release Date	January 1, 2026
Length	237 Pages
ISBN	979-8-9989900-0-7
Price	$18.95
Availability	Amazon / Barnes & Noble (Print & Kindle)

Connect & Order:

🌐 edwardajuliansr.com

📷 @edwardajulian

📘 Edward A. Julian Sr.

✉ beginbelievebecome14@gmail.com

📺 @edwarda.juliansr.4123

📄 Edward A. Julian Sr.